Provider Profile

Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Partners for Community (PfC), formed, in 2000, as a 501(c) 3 tax exempt, non-profit and based in Springfield Massachusetts, provides fiscal, human resources, information and technology, program space and procurement, and organizational development oversight for six, non-profit, human service agencies... affiliates... and other social service groups. The organization operates as an "administrative umbrella" for its member agencies, enabling them to maximize their social services to the communities in Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire Rhode Island, Dutchess County, New York and Puerto Rico. While their specific social missions differ, PfC agencies are linked by the common goal of providing high quality services that promote lives of dignity and independence for all who utilize PfC programs.

Corporation for Justice Management (CJM) – since 2006, progressive, community-based, criminal justice programs providing non-institutional, alternative incarceration for adults, alternative correction and rehabilitation for youth and treatment and outreach for persons with special needs. The assurance of public safety is at the forefront of each and every program offered.

Corporation for Public Management (CPM) – since the mid 1980's, employment, welfare to work, developmental disability day and residential support, inner-city youth development, US citizenship and adult literacy services for low-income populations.

New England Farm Workers' Council (NEFWC) -- since 1971, employment and family assistance programs, including fuel assistance, voucher day care, homelessness prevention and migrant farm worker and low-income group employment and training services.

Brightwood Development Corporation (BDC) – since 1977, community development corporation (CDC) serving low-income persons and small businesses, many minority-owned, in Springfield MA, North End neighborhood.

CareerPoint – since 1996, Hampden County MA career center offering "one-stop" employment services for individual job-seekers and area employers.

New England Partners in Faith (NEPIF) – since 2006, providing sustainable development and capacity-building to small faith-based organizations. Funding for these services comes from the U.S. Department of Labor and Health and Human Services.
